Brett Ullman Monday 1:30pm Pavilion 6 MEDIA.FAITH.CULTURE

Growing up, we didn't have the Internet, our friends didn't cut themselves and text messaging wasn't even on the radar. Today's young people are bombarded by media of all kinds, and have instant access to any subject and any topic of their choosing. Their media-saturated lives are inescapably inundated by chat rooms, movies, instant messaging and their ipods. How do we help guide our children to live Godly lives amidst this kind of cultural climate? Brett Ullman discusses, from a parent's perspective, sensitive topics affecting today's young people including cutting, suicide, substance abuse, sex and violence. Bringing hope and an awareness to today's parents, Brett sheds light on how with increased knowledge of youth trends, adults can be more discerning in their parenting strategies and better able to anticipate the needs of their children as they navigate the often challenging waters of adolescence. This session will be presented for Parents, Youth Pastors and Leaders

InterVarsity: (Geared for Youth Pastors & Parents) Wednesday 1:30pm Pavilion #4

What will happen to our Youth AFTER they graduate from High School? Did you know that 70% of teens will abandon their faith within one year of their graduation from High School? This is according to a Christian Research Institute called, "Lifeway," which is affiliated with the publishing arm of the Southern Baptist Convention. In this seminar we will discuss several ways to keep this sad statistic from happening to YOUR teens.

Alan Craig, Exec.Dir. of Living Rock Ministries Wednesday 1:30pm Pavilion 9 Reaching Out in the Cultural Language of Youth

Alan Craig brings 28 years of culturally relevant strategies for reaching youth. He brings understanding and solutions to the challenge of ministering to youth. His background in addictions work and as a Chaplain in a detention center, adds to his unique ability to reach out with the love of Christ, to youth who do not respond to traditional forms of support. Alan's seminar will minister to parents, youth ministers and friends of youth-at-risk.

Morning Devos at the Park Stage

Teens and Young Adults should be sure to attend morning devotions on the Park Stage led by Relevant Worship www.relevantworshipmusic.com and Pastor Wes Aarum. Mon, Tues, Wed 11:00am

Brett Ullman Tuesday 1:30pm Pavilion 6 MEDIA.FAITH.CULTURE Our World calls to us through our ipods, magazines, movies and television sets. Our Faith suggests our lives ought to reflect values and sentiments that often conflict with popular culture. Our God wants us to fit in, to share His love with others. How do we exist in an overwhelmingly media-saturated culture and what is our response to it? Rather than being involuntarily shaped by pop culture, how do we affect it? Shaping the lives of young people today, Brett Ullman addresses teen topics including cutting, suicide, drugs, sex and violence in an open and straight forward manner. This youth-focused seminar is meant to open the eyes of participants to the trends in modern media, their potential effects on our lives and what a Christian response to this cultural paradox ought to resemble.

This session will be presented for YOUTH

Brett Ullman Wednesday 1:30pm Pavilion 6 DATING FOR LIFE My friends are dating - some of them are going to far, I think. My parents tell me to wait, but how long do I have to wait? How far is too far? Does the Bible say there's just one person for me? How far can I go without regretting it later? The divorce rate is over 50% in western culture; this statistic is no longer a shocker. More disturbing than this reality, however, is the ease with which culture seems to have absorbed this trend. Incomes are being split, families are being divided and children are asked to choose which parent they want to live with. This presentation, intended for those of a dating age, begins a discussion on the concept of dating. Addressing many of the tough issues facing young people today, Brett explores the concepts of culture, sex and money and how these issues relate to Christian dating in a 21st century world.

Jeff Papia Tuesday 12:30pm Pavilion 10 "Be a Man"

Elizabeth has worked for the past three years at St. Gregory's Roman Catholic Church and Canisius College Campus Ministry.

Phee Shorb pheeistalking.com

Tuesday 1:30pm Pavilion 4 "Cause & Effect"

God has burdened Phee, the drummer for Fireflight, with a desire to encourage young leaders to be mobilized and active in the body of Christ. He believes this is crucial for the church to continue to progress, and remain relevant and effective in our outreach. So many young Christians are unaware of the power God has given them to do great things for Him. He is confident that God will use his "Cause & Effect" message to inspire young Kingdom Bounders to leave careless living behind and instead reach for the best reward.

Tiffany Robison Wednesday Noon Pavilion 9 The Insatiable Quest for Beauty

In a media-saturated world that clamors for teens and young adults to find their identity in fashion, beauty, romantic relationships and social popularity, Tiffany Dawn Robison is sharing how she found freedom and confidence in Christ's unconditional love. Her message is a unique blend of lyrical piano melodies and stories from her own intimate battle for self-esteem and acceptance. From drowning in disordered eating patterns and an obsession with beauty to standing firmly with confidence and joy as a daughter of the King, Tiffany takes her listeners along her journey to freedom and shares the secrets she learned along the way. Tiffany is a 2007 graduate of Roberts Wesleyan College in Rochester, NY (where she received her bachelor's degree in music) and is currently working towards her master's degree in music therapy at Nazareth College. Besides being obsessed with writing and pretzels, she is also a singer/songwriter/speaker whose message of self-esteem and body image resonates with the young women of her generation.
